Last Will and Testament

The Senior Class of Warsaw High School does hereby leave to the members of the Junior Class the following:

Kermit Sanders leaves Rudy Lowery's pinball machine to Bobby Pulley.

James White leaves his Charles Atlas physique to Darian Sission.

Warren Thrift wills his Toni wave and use of English to Herbert Garland, Jr.

Jerry Spiker leaves his artistic ability and his brother's shirts to Norman Donovan.

Frances Bell is going to take Stewart Dishman with her, but she wills the remainder of the boys to Betty Pulley. We're sure Betty Pulley will know what to do with them.

Ruth Smith and Barbara Clarke give their quiet ways and sweet smiles to Bernard Packett.

Amos Elliott and Leslie Fallin leave their G. I. haircuts to Henry Seward.

Cordell Sanford leaves his size eighteen shoes to Rachel Packett.

Ann Edwards leaves the bookkeeping she loved so dearly to Rozelle Davis.

Dorothy Jones, Pat Parr and Myrtle Morris have collected all their pin-up boys and leave them to Shirley Williams and Virginia Bell.

Stewart Dishman leaves his good looks to Durwood Hale and his Ford to anybody that can catch it.

Louise Hall and Mildred Franklin leave the lunchroom to Viola Balderson and they hope Miss Trudy never runs out of mustard.

Tommy Robbins leaves his frequent visits to Mr. Perkin's office to Edward Sydnor. Good luck, Jack, you'll need it.

Irving Packett will Taylor's Mill to Barbara English.

Mary Withers leaves the love songs she sings to Ralph Revere to Christine Dawson.

Billy Croxton leaves his cute freckles to Hazel Sydnor.

Darrell Woolard is going off to be a hermit; so he leaves Warsaw High School to Lois Franklin and hopes she gives it back to the Indians.

Ernestine Nash, Reta Jenkins and Edna Bryant leave their shorthand and typing to Phyllis Fallin. All their gossip goes along, too.

Ralph Smith leaves his dreamy eyes and crazy conversations to Margaret Harper.

Bobby Wilson leaves his athletic ability and all his girlfriends (all but one that is) to William Garland.

Burnette Scott leaves her charming personality and fondness for Miss Claude to Evelyn Franklin.

Ralph Revere leaves the B and B pool room and his ability to imitate an ape to Maywood Edwards.

Ellsworth Bowen leaves his blonde hair and big smile to Cora Packett.

Myers France leaves his muscles and the Agriculture Building to Grayson Lee Smith and Harding Waterfield.

In conclusion the entire Senior Class wills Miss Claude to the Junior Class and wishes them the best of luck.

Class Prophecy

It was a sunny day up on Mars when I climbed into my shiny new rocket ship and headed down towards the earth. It was the year 1959, and I had not seen my friends on earth for nearly ten years. A few hours later I landed in New York City and began a search for all my old classmates.

As I walked down Broadway, I passed the theater where the graceful ballet dancer, Mildred Franklin, was appearing. The papers said she had charmed all the young men in New York.

A few blocks down the street, I passed a car on which was printed "James White's Taxi Service." I climbed in and found "Taterbug" himself at the wheel. James told me he owned half the cabs in the city, as he drove me to Yankee Stadium where I was just in time to see Kermit Sanders smack his sixty-eight home-run of the season. Ralph Smith, the Yankee's brilliant manager, told me that Kermit was the hottest second baseman the league had ever seen. Manager Smith and his dear little wife, Reta Jenkins, drove me to the airport from which I left for Virginia.

In Richmond, I was surprised to be met at the Airport by the Governor of the State himself, the Honorable Charles Cordell Sanford. With him was his pretty secretary, Barbara Clark, who was putting to good use all that Miss Claude had taught her.

We drove to the radio station, where I stopped to greet the members of the famous Harmonizing Four Quartet—Amos Elliott, Irving Packett, Bobby Wilson and Ellsworth Bowen. The guest star on their program that evening was Patricia Parr, the celebrated opera singer.

On our way to Warsaw, we passed the new factory, the Croxton-France Company, where Billy and Myers were making millions manufacturing pinball machines.

In Tappahannock, we saw the big Safeway Store run by Warner Williams and his better half, Ann Edwards.

There was a big celebration going on in Warsaw. Major-General Stewart Dishman and the charming society girl, Frances Bell, had just been married. The wedding was conducted by Reverend Warren Thrift, Pastor of Totuskey Baptist Church. Ernestine Nash was there in her beautiful evening dress. Ernestine had left the children at home with her husband, Darrell Woolard, who was the local undertaker. Darrell said he was the last man to let you down.

Professor Jerry Spiker, the noted Atomic Scientist, had flown down from Washington, bringing with him the first female Vice-President of the United States, Miss Myrtle Morris. Miss Morris had nosed out Leslie Fallin in the election. Leslie had now retired from politics and had become principal of Warsaw High School.

Ruth Smith was now teaching typing, and Mrs. Dorothy Jones had taken over the Home Economics Department. Ruth and Dorothy said they had things well under control.

The wealthy, handsome, young playboy, Ralph Revere, pulled up in his sixteen cylinder Cadillac, followed by a mob of admirers. Ralph was accompanied by the lovely Edna Bryant, movie actress and society girl, who had divorced Clark Gable, Robert Taylor and Jimmy Durante. He also brought with him Louise Hall, Burnette Scott, and his own little Chickadee, Mary Withers. Ralph told me he just couldn't choose between them; so he brought all four. That was enough.

The hustle-bustle of the earth was wearing me down. I made it back to my rocket ship and heading toward the peaceful planet of Mars, flew off into space.

CONGRATULATIONS, GRADUATES!

Although you are graduates, you can do a great service for the rest of us, if you never cease to be students-- looking for opportunities and ways to cherish the American system of free enterprize and to improve the American way of life. You can be thankful for free schools in a country where you are free to worship and work and think and talk as you please. This is your heritage from the people who built America.

THE FUTURE is pretty largely in your hands -- you must be vigilant and active to combat the evils of socialism, government domination of private industry, and all the "isms" that destroy democracy. We depend upon you to do a good job.

GOOD LUCK!
